William Pais

Author of the Coffee Table Book “The Land Called South Kanara”. This is the illustrated book on South Kanara featuring Culture, history, folk arts, sports, yakshagana festivals etc. Echoes of the Corridors: A portrait of St Aloysius College, is his second authored book.

Director of Gallerie Orchid that has promoted Artists for last 16 years. Conducted and curated 65 exhibitions. He believes that the creative endeavour of the human being is the only balancing factor against the vices.

It is from art, music and culture poetry we all derive our identity from and the more we engage in its promotion more Peace will prevail.

Benny Dsa

Transitioned from being a CA to a full time visual artist in 2017, founding “BJollyCreations” to spread joy through art. Her work is defined as elite subtle and that depicts surrealism.

Largely self trained her skills were enhanced through numerous workshops & courses. With a penchant for mandala art, her skills speak volumes on self experiences, intricate geometric patterns, cultures, nature, humor and womanhood.

Her works have been exhibited in CKP, IIWC, shades creative gallery and sublime Galleria.

Art is a lifelong learning journey.
